Amos A. Phelps

Pastor of Pine Street Church

Boston

Mass.

Rec'd Oct 14 1839

Amos A. Phelps

Pastor of Pine Street Church

Boston

Mass.

Rec'd Oct 14 1839

Rev. Amos Phelps
Pastor of Pine St. Church
Boston
Mass.

Rec'd Oct 14 1839

Rev. Amos A. Phelps
Pastor of Pine Street

pain, almost constantly, which disqualifies me, in some measure, for application to business.

For nearly two weeks I have not been free from pain. This has prevented me from doing much for the good cause, for some time past. I hope I shall be better before the meeting of the Convention.

My love is to all our friends in Boston. May the Lord bless your labours, is the prayer of thy sincere friend

Evan Lewis

To A. A. Phelps

hation and the advocates of Colonization, is becoming daily more apparent. They have no sym-pathy nor fellowship for each other. I feel it as much my duty to bear my testimony against the latter shame as against slavery itself. The one is completely identified with the other, and are equally sinful and abominable in my view.

My friend Dr Edwin A. Atlee, authorises me to give his name for the use.

Excuse my short note.
I am seriously indisposed, and am now suffering acute

84

Philadelphia 11th mo. 14th 1833

Esteemed friend

I do not doubt, but I would be willing to subscribe to all the sentiments, on the subject of slavery, contained, or expressed in thy volume of lectures. I am quite free to have my name used as proposed. I am sorry to say that most of the clergymen with whom I am acquainted, in this city and neighborhood, are unfavorable to African Colonization. Hence they are not so likely to sanction such a work.

The wide gulf which separates the friends of universal emanci